I wanted to take a moment and express my gratitude for the prayers and concern of our church family during the stress of the past months. As most of you know, I received a diagnosis of early stage breast cancer in early January. That began a process of more tests, surgery, and then radiation treatments. The early months were of course filled with anxiety. Following the surgery at the end of February, I was very relieved to learn that the lymph nodes were not involved. Because of that, the major treatment I received post-surgery were the six weeks of daily radiation therapy. I was fortunate in that my side effects were mild.

On Friday, May 6, following my last radiation treatment, I drove to southern Maine for five days of vacation. It was a quiet time of relaxing, reading, and reveling in the knowledge that the treatments were over. Those days of renewal in a lovely spot near the ocean were like "emotional medicine" after a stressful four months.

Then last week I got a dose of "spiritual medicine." I was blessed to participate in the annual Festival of Homiletics, a nationally acclaimed preaching conference. This year's conference was held at the historic Peachtree Road United Methodist Church in Atlanta, GA. Although I was originally propelled to go because of the annual continuing education requirement in our conference (which I had not fulfilled in the past two years), it ended up being so much more. The conference brings together the nation's best preachers to lead pastors for 4 days of sermons, lectures, and workshops on the art of preaching. The theme of this year's conference was: "Prophetic Preaching in Times of Change." The goals of the conference included: 1) Bring together a wide variety of outstanding preachers and professors of homiletics. 2) Inspire a discourse about preaching, worship, and culture. 3) Engage issues related to church in the 21st century. 4) Engage theologically the practice of preaching and worship. 5) Invite individual preachers to consider various styles and methodologies of preaching. 6) Inspire preachers in their roles of proclaiming the gospel. These goals sound very lofty and I think they were met to varying degrees for the participants I spoke with, almost all of whom were thrilled to be there.

And I think it will take a while to integrate all the things I learned. But this I do know: it was a huge spiritual boost to be there. When you are the preacher whose job it is to come up with the sermon week after week after week, one of the occupational hazards is that you don't get many opportunities to hear sermons. You don't get many opportunities to be the receiver during worship services. And so it was a wonderful treat to participate in several worship services each day; to hear excellent preachers preach the word and share the gospel. And so I came away from each long day feeling renewed and re-fueled spiritually. And being at the Conference, I think, also helped me to feel like I am moving forward with my life after the challenging events of the last four months.

Shortly after I got back from Atlanta, I received yet another spiritual boost—that of confirming six young persons who became official members of our congregation this past Sunday. I thoroughly enjoyed this year's class. I loved their fresh insights, their willingness to ask questions, their openness to learning more about the Christian faith. And whether or not you might think so, I found that they were quite willing to talk openly about their faith. I would like to share with you some excerpts from their confirmation projects, in which they wrote their faith journeys:

"I think of God as a paramedic, because he saves us when we are in trouble. But Jesus is also our Savior, who sacrificed his life for us on the cross. He helps us now by staying by our side when times are tough. He is with me 24/7."

"The United Methodist Church is my church home, and it's amazing here. The church keeps my faith strong and my faith will lead me to my life's choices....God created me to be whatever I want, and I want to be a Christian."

"Even though I have been going to church my entire life, I still have a lot of questions. I enjoy learning with my friends here. I hope to keep going to church and I think I can do a lot at church to help other people out in the community."

"One of the things I like about our church is that everyone talks to you. We are all like a big family at the church. I like that we can all take communion together."

"One of the things I have learned about God is that we have to love and treat people equally. I think my beliefs as a Christian will help me make decisions in the future. I think it will help me make good choices and believe in the choices I make."

These statements speak for themselves. Our Confirmands feel at home in our church; believe their faith will be a resource in their lives; and understand the Christian imperative to serve others. They have demonstrated that they are willing to learn and grow in their faith. Let's let them know that we understand they have much to teach us as well.

Blessings In Christ,
Pastor Kim

Confirmation is not a sacrament in
The United Methodist Church, but it is an important step in our spiritual journeys.

Mentors are adults with a mature faith who set an example of how to grow in faith, offer support and encouragement and talk with confirmands about tough faith questions.

DON'T FORGET TO THANK ALL THE FATHER'S IN YOUR LIFE

Fathers are wonderful people
Too little understood,
And we do not sing their praises
As often as we should.

For, somehow, Father seems to be
The man who pays the bills,
While Mother binds up little hurts
And nurses all our ills.

And Father struggles daily
To live up to "his image"
As protector and provider
And "hero of the scrimmage".

And perhaps that is the reason
We sometimes get the notion,
That Fathers are not subject
To the thing we call emotion,

But if you look inside Dad's heart,
Where no one else can see
You'll find he's sentimental
And as "soft" as he can be.

But he's so busy every day
In the grueling race of life,
He leaves the sentimental stuff
To his partner and his wife.

But Fathers are just wonderful
In a million different ways,
And they merit loving compliments
And accolades of praise,

For the only reason Dad aspires
To fortune and success
Is to make the family proud of him
And to bring them happiness.

And like Our Heavenly Father,
He's a guardian and a guide,
Someone that we can count on
To be always on our side.

- Helen Steiner Rice

Trustee's Report

Trustees met Wed. May 4, 2016. The following was discussed:

CHURCH NEEDS:

1. Column update: Larry Bornemeier distributed a letter from Cenexo indicating a price increase based on extra work necessary with the ridge beam and extra scaffolding. We explored our financial status. There are restricted funds for the sign allocation. The amount not yet spent is $4,253.00. The new total needed for the beam work would be $51,584. The letter also mentioned a possible increase based on the possibility of an insurance claim update. Larry then presented a report on the current investigation into the possibility of a lightning strike on the beam. He has seen the fire marshall concerning the possibility of an insurance claim because of the charring found at the bottom of the beam and where steel was present further up on the beam. Lightning has not been excluded from the possibilities. Larry will make an appointment with the insurance adjuster about the new data.

2. Sign update: A letter had been sent to the sign company about the problems we have with the quality and placement of the new sign. An onsite meeting was held with a sign company representative. This occurred several weeks ago and we have not heard from the parties involved. The representative took copious notes and was to report back to the principal owner of the sign company. We will call Signarama for an update. In addition, Mary Lou Heyel has received an offer from Mike's Landscaping to donate two bushes for the side of the sign when we are ready to plant. We are to let them know what type and size we want.

3. Space Users' Agreement: We have received a copy of a Hold Harmless Contract for organizations who use our facilities. Thank you to the New Paltz Methodist Church for providing this document. This will be amended to suit the needs of our congregation and its' occupants.

Submitted by Larry Bornemeier, Chairperson for Trustees

Thanks to Kim Cain-Moreira, chef extraordinaire, for organizing and creating a most wonderful Mother's Day Tea/Coffee Hour with the Sunday school kids.

To all the bakers and takers, a big thank you to everyone who so generously baked many numerous and delicious treats for our Mother's Day Tea. We had cookies, brownies, and a nice assortment of pies and cakes. We topped last years amount, bringing in $439. So many of you did not want their change back while others made generous donations. I hope all the goodies graced your table for Mother's Day and were gone in a flash.

Many thanks to Karlene and Penny who bend over backwards to help, and with a big smile too. They were a big hand when things got busy and it was much appreciated.

All the monies collected will go to the UMW mission work.

It is a good feeling knowing that our church is so giving and loving, may God bless you all for your support and caring....Valerie Stagen.

United Methodist Women

June UMW Meeting:

On Tuesday, June 14th, there will be a United Methodist Women's meeting at the home of Donald and Karlene Lombardo. This meeting will start at 6pm. Rather than the usual pot luck the Lombardo's will be providing grilled chicken and hot dogs. Plan to bring a salad, chips or a dessert to share. However, there will be plenty of food and mostly we want to see you! We will have a brief service, after the meal, to commemorate the World Thank Offering. Feel free to bring your spouse or a friend. We are celebrating our 25th year as a Five Star Unit. Come and have fun! Please bring any labels for education. These will be sent to The Henderson Settlement in Frakes, Kentucky. They are used to provide much needed items. We are also collecting juice packs and fruit packs to be used at the Association of Religious Communities' "Peace Camp" this summer.

Please make every effort to attend, and enjoy an evening of fellowship. If you have any questions, or need a ride, contact Karlene Lombardo at 203-743-1260 or at lombardodk@gmail.com.

Aasta Moser Award 2016 Looking for Nominations

Each year the United Methodist Women give a donation in the name of the recipient of the Aasta Moser Award. This special membership award money is forwarded to the Women's Division. The award money is used in that area of mission where it is most needed. The award certificate and pin are given during worship. The person who received the 2015 Aasta Moser Award was Cliff Davis.

A few nominations for 2016 have already been received. Now is the time to look around our congregation and decide who has been active in our church and in our community. Please send your nomination to me at lombardodk@gmail.com. You may also speak to me directly. I will be accepting nominations until July 3rd.

I look forward to hearing from you. Karlene Lombardo

Books for the Pumpkin Festival

Don't wait! Start sorting your books for the festival now. We are ready to accept them in Room 1 at the church. Please place them on the shelves or if you have a box of books leave it, on the floor, in front of the shelves. From non-fiction to mysteries to children's books. We are accepting them all. You may also donate DVD's, CD's and audio books. I will check the room every 2 weeks and try to keep it organized. Our own very special book table will be set up the second week in September. The Book Room will also feature a corner for greeting cards. If you have some that you would like to donate you may leave them in Room 1 also. Everyone loves to browse and buy at the Book Room. Please donate and make our sale special on October first.

Questions? Contact Karlene Lombardo at lombardodk@gmail.com

PUMPKIN FESTIVAL NEWS

Dear Church Friends:

PLEASE, take this letter and form (on page 10) to one place of business that you frequent. Ask them if they would like to advertise their business to about 400 other people from the Danbury area. $25 will give them a quarter of a page, a business card size. That is a lot of advertisement for $25. So, you are actually doing them a favor. If everyone asks 1 person, think how much money we will make for the church to support our programs. It really isn't that hard or embarrassing. Give it a try.. ...Once. Thanks.

*The United Methodist Church of Danbury
5 Clapboard Ridge Road
Danbury, CT 06811*

This year on October 1, 2016, United Methodist Church of Danbury will be having its 12th Annual Pumpkin Festival. This is our major fund raising effort to support our local outreach ministries, such as Dorothy Day Center, Appalachian Service Project, Helping Hands for hospitals and care centers, Association for Religious Ministries and Children & Family Services. We would like to invite you to join with us to make this an even more successful event by becoming one of our advertisers. We anticipate having a large turnout at this year's festival. We will be advertising in all of the local papers, (both electronically and hardcopy), local churches and businesses, as well as very visible signs around town. Our church is easily found, just off exit 5 of I-84 at 5 Clapboard Ridge Road, Danbury, CT. I hope that you will see this as a good business opportunity as well as a way to be involved in our community.

Opportunity to Try Out Choir for Only 4 Sundays

The Choir will be singing through June before taking a break for summer. Here is the PERFECT opportunity to TRY OUT CHOIR with SHORT Commitment!! Join us for practice on Wednesday nights at 7:15pm and/or 9:30am on Sundays. Only requirement is to enjoy singing. Give us a try for 4 weeks .

For more information talk to Carol Spaulding 203-778-4066 or carol.spaulding@snet.net

Being a member of bell choir is not only a fun way to express yourself musically, but a way to connect to the service and bring joy to the service. I find that being a part of the bell choir allows me to be a participate musically in worship which makes it all the more meaningful to me. Bell choir meets every Wednesday at 6 pm in the choir room and you do not need any musical experience to join. Everything you need to know to play we can teach you. all you need is a willingness to bring music to life and to count to 4. We play once a month, usually the second Sunday of the month and would love to have more members join, the more we have the challenging music we can play, and I promise you, it is a great sense of accomplishment after we play. To celebrate the lord and bring music to life in worship is a wonderful thing.

General Conference 2016

THE GLOBAL CHURCH GATHERS

Bishops to Appoint Commission to Re-evaluate Rules Regarding Sexuality Issues

The Bishops council proposed that the conference defer all votes on sexuality measures; more than 100 such measures were sent to the 10-day meeting. The bishops proposed that they appoint a commission to undertake a “complete examination and possible revision of every paragraph in our Book of discipline regarding human sexuality”.

The bishops’ statement said that they heard from many members that the rules had language that was “contradictory, unnecessarily hurtful and inadequate” for a diverse and global church

These are excerpts from Laurie Goodstein’s article in the NY Times, May 18, 2016
